Woodturning Marvels

Structured strictly for one-on-one instruction, these ongoing private lessons for beginners will provide you with knowledge of basic tools and turning techniques used to create small items such as wood pens and Christmas ornaments, to larger vessels such as bowls and vases. Students will work initially on a small lathe to create wood pens/pencils, gradually working up to larger, more complex projects requiring larger lathes. Students will use instructor's tools/lathes, then purchase their own tools as desired. Times, days, projects, etc. will be worked out individually with the instructor. Each session will be a minimum of 2 hours.

Dates and times: To be determined by student/instructor.
Tuition: $25/hour – 2 hour minimum per session
Supplies: Provided for initial project, student may purchase necessary tools upon advancement
Instructor: Ed Spurgeon
Enrollment: Ages 16 years – Adult, Unlimited number of students, but only 1 student per private session * 1 week
